

The Miracles of Jesus

A Coloring & Story Book

Beverley Lilliann Alice Joubert

Welcome!

This colouring book has been created to help children discover the miracles of Jesus in a fun and meaningful way. Each story from the Bible is paired with a colouring page, making it easy for young readers to learn, reflect, and enjoy at the same time.

The miracles of Jesus show His love, power, and compassion. Through nature miracles, healings, casting out demons, raising the dead, and His resurrection, children will see how Jesus brought hope and life wherever He went.

Parents and teachers can use the simple retellings of Scripture to read with children, while the illustrations give little hands space to be creative. Together, these pages are meant to spark conversations, inspire faith, and remind us that Jesus still works in amazing ways today.

We hope this book will not only bring joy in colouring, but also plant seeds of faith in young hearts.

WATER INTO WINE

JOHN 2:1-11

Water into Wine

One day, Jesus and His mother Mary went to a wedding in a town called Cana. Weddings in those days were big celebrations, and everyone came to eat, drink, and dance together.

But then, a problem happened — the wine ran out. For the family hosting the wedding, this was very embarrassing. Mary, Jesus' mother, came to Him and said, "They have no more wine."

Jesus told her, "It is not yet My time." Still, Mary trusted Him. She told the servants, "Do whatever He tells you."

Nearby stood six large stone jars, each used for water. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." They filled them right to the top. Then Jesus told them, "Now take some out and give it to the master of the feast."

When the master tasted it, he was amazed! The water had turned into the best wine he had ever tasted. He said, "Usually people serve the best wine first, and later bring out the cheaper wine. But you have saved the best until now!”

This was the very first miracle Jesus did. It showed His power and made His disciples believe in Him even more.

JESUS SAID TO
THE SERVANTS,
FILL THE JARS
WITH WATER.

— JOHN 2:7

LUKE 5:1-11

The Great Catch of Fish

One morning, Jesus was standing by the Sea of Galilee. A big crowd had gathered to listen to Him teach. Jesus saw two boats at the water's edge. The fishermen were busy washing their nets after fishing all night.

Jesus stepped into Simon Peter's boat and asked him to push out a little from shore. Sitting in the boat, Jesus taught the people on the land.

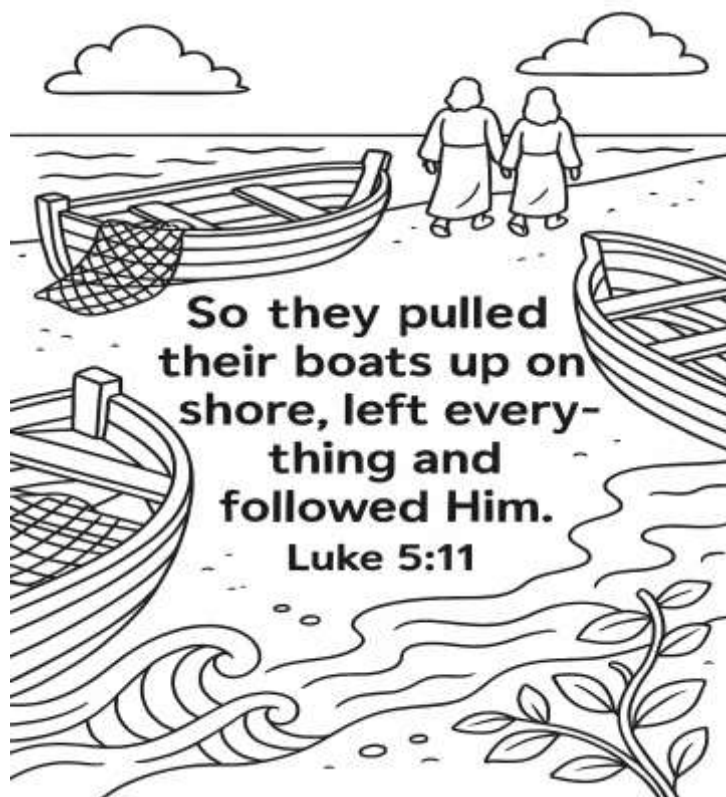

When He finished speaking, Jesus turned to Peter and said, "Take the boat into deep water, and let down the nets for a catch."

Peter sighed. "Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing. But because You say so, I will let down the nets."

As soon as they lowered the nets, they caught so many fish that the nets began to break! They called their friends in the other boat to come and help. Soon, both boats were so full of fish that they almost sank.

Peter was amazed and fell at Jesus' knees. "Lord, I am not worthy," he said. But Jesus told him, "Do not be afraid. From now on, you will fish for people."

So Peter, James, and John pulled their boats up on shore, left everything, and followed Jesus.

4:35-41; Luke 8:22-25

Jesus Calms the Storm

One day, Jesus and His disciples got into a boat to cross the lake. Jesus was very tired, so He lay down and fell fast asleep.

Suddenly, a furious storm swept over the water. The waves crashed against the boat, and it began to fill with water. The disciples were terrified.

They shook Jesus awake and shouted, "Lord, save us! We are going to drown!"

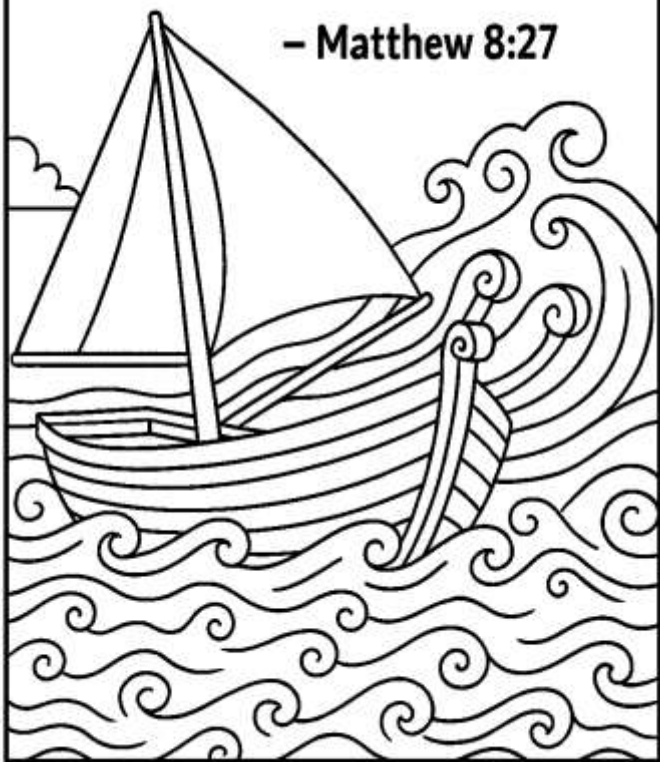

Jesus opened His eyes and said, "Why are you so afraid? Do you still have so little faith?"

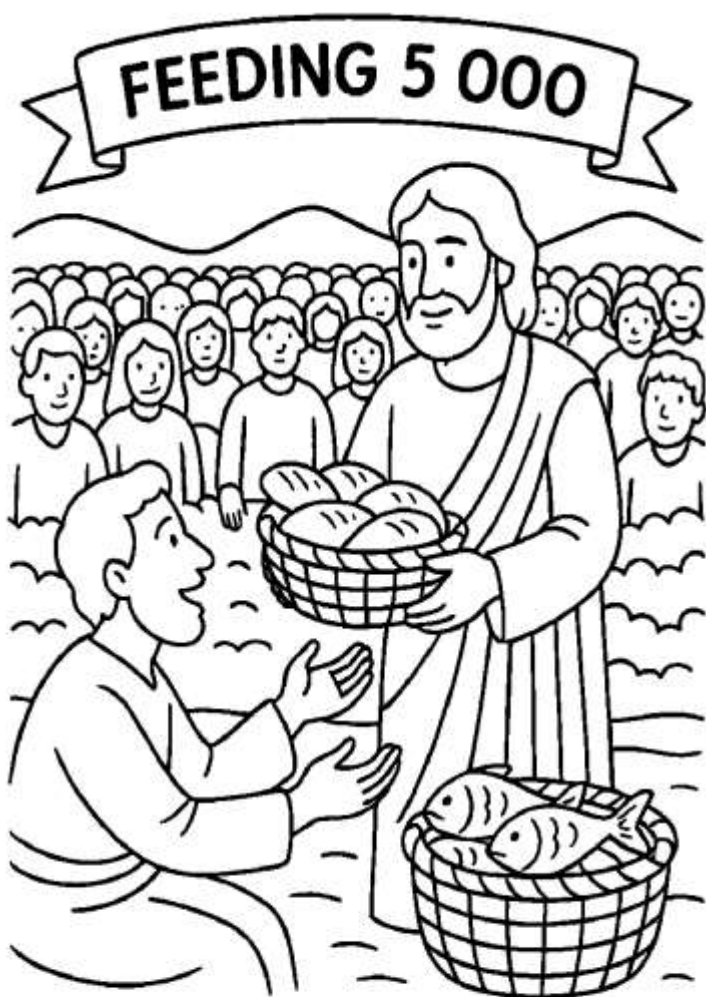

Then He stood up, looked at the wind and the waves, and told them to be still. Right away the storm stopped. The water became calm and quiet.

The disciples were amazed. They whispered to each other, "What kind of man is this? Even the wind and the waves obey Him!"

Even the winds and the waves
obey Him!

Jesus Feeds 5 000

Jesus had been teaching many people, and crowds followed Him wherever He went. One day, a very large crowd gathered—more than 5 000 men, plus women and children! They wanted to hear His words and be near Him.

As the day went on, the disciples became worried. “It’s getting late,” they said. “Send the people away so they can buy food.”

But Jesus replied, “They don’t need to go away. You give them something to eat.”

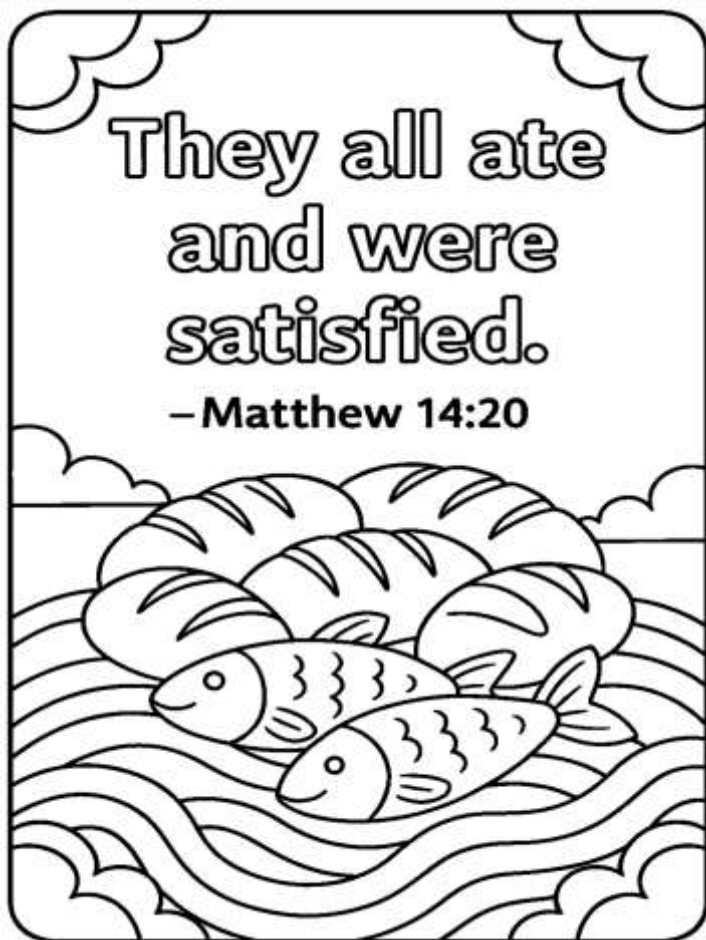

The disciples looked at each other in surprise. “But we only have five loaves of bread and two fish!” they said.

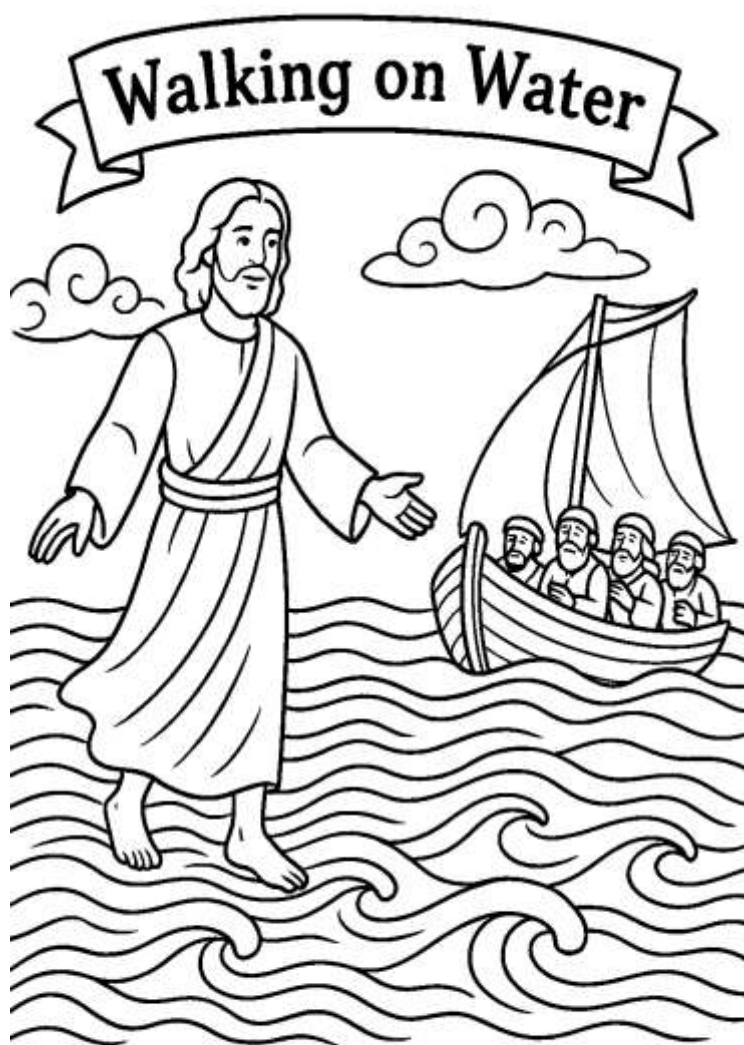

Jesus told the people to sit down on the grass. He took the loaves and fish, looked up to heaven, and gave thanks. Then He broke the bread and gave it to the disciples to hand out.

Amazingly, everyone ate as much as they wanted! When the meal was over, the disciples collected twelve baskets full of leftovers.

With just five loaves and two fish, Jesus fed over 5 000 people.

Matthew 14:22-33; Mark 6:45-52; John 6:16-21

Jesus Walks on Water

After feeding the crowd, Jesus told His disciples to get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side of the lake. Then Jesus went up on a mountainside by Himself to pray.

Later that night, the disciples were far out on the water. The wind was strong, and the waves were rough. Suddenly, they saw someone walking toward them on the lake.

"It's a ghost!" they cried in fear.

But Jesus called out, "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."

Peter said, "Lord, if it's really You, tell me to come to You on the water."

"Come," Jesus said.

Peter stepped out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw the wind and waves, he became afraid and started to sink. "Lord, save me!" he cried.

Right away, Jesus reached out His hand and caught him. "You have so little faith," Jesus said. "Why did you doubt?"

When they climbed into the boat, the wind stopped. The disciples worshiped Him, saying, "Truly, You are the Son of God."

Take courage!
It is I.
Don't be afraid.

Jesus Feeds 4 000

A large crowd had been following Jesus for three days. They listened to His teaching and brought their sick to be healed. But now they were very hungry, and they had nothing left to eat.

Jesus called His disciples and said, "I feel sorry for these people. They have been with Me for three days and have nothing to eat. If I send them home hungry, they might faint on the way."

The disciples answered, "Where could we get enough bread in this lonely place to feed such a crowd?"

"How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked.

"Seven loaves, and a few small fish," they replied.

Jesus told the crowd to sit down on the ground. He took the seven loaves and the fish, gave thanks to God, and broke them into pieces. Then He gave them to the disciples, who passed them out to the people.

Everyone ate until they were full. Afterward, the disciples collected seven baskets of leftovers. About 4 000 men were fed that day, not counting the women and children.

'I have compassion for these people.'

Matthew 17:24-27

The Coin in the Fish's Mouth

One day, Jesus and His disciples went to the town of Capernaum. There, some men came to Peter and asked, "Does your teacher pay the temple tax?"

"Yes, He does," Peter replied.

When Peter went into the house, Jesus spoke first. "What do you think, Simon?" He asked. "Do kings collect taxes from their own children, or from others?"

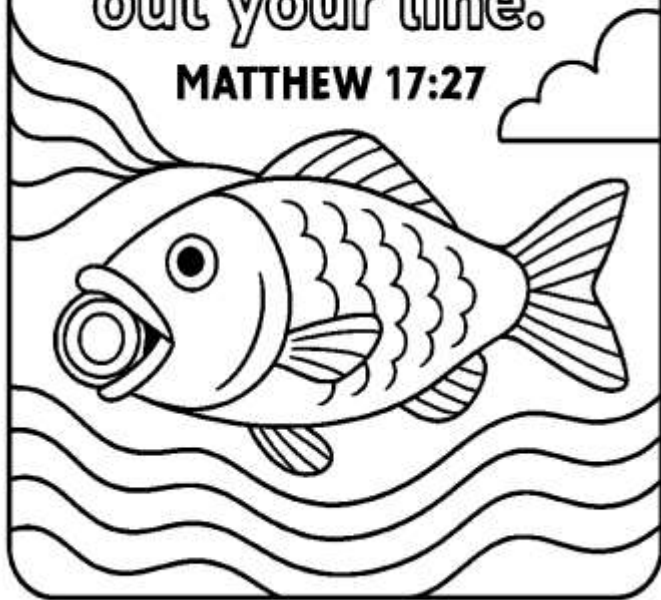

"From others," Peter answered.

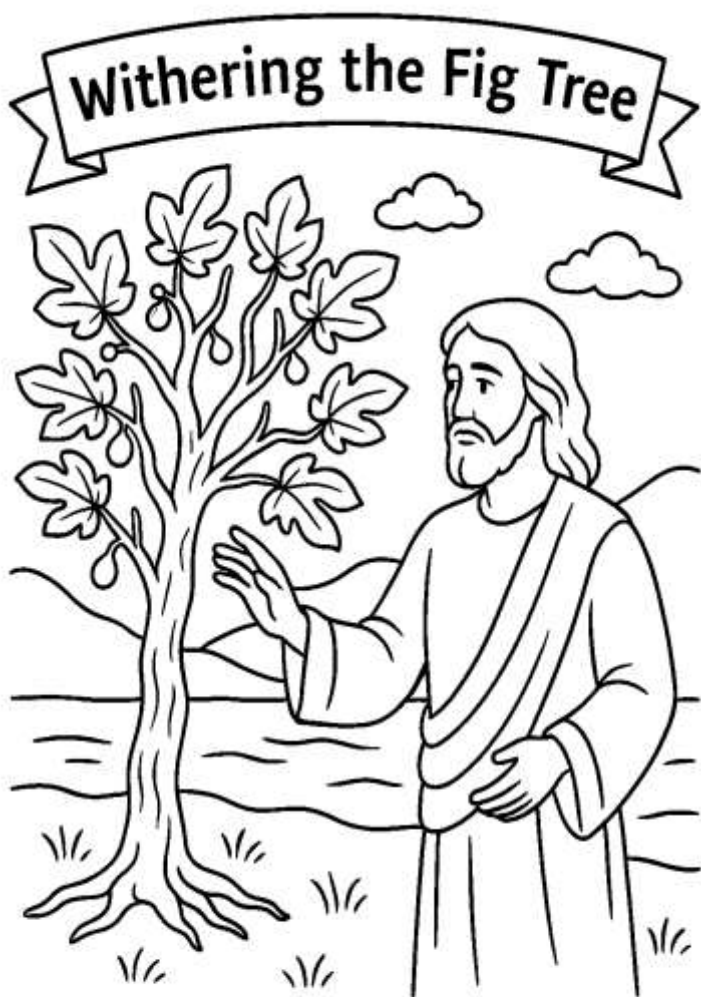

"That's right," said Jesus. "So, the children are free. But we don't want to cause offense. Go to the lake, throw out your line, and take the first fish you catch. Open its mouth, and you will find a coin. Take it and give it to them for My tax and yours."

Peter did just as Jesus said, and he found the coin in the fish's mouth—exactly as Jesus promised!

But so that we may not cause

Jesus Withers the Fig Tree

Early one morning, Jesus was walking back to the city with His disciples. He was hungry. Along the road, He saw a fig tree. Jesus went up to it, but there was no fruit on it—only leaves.

Then Jesus said to the tree, “May you never bear fruit again!” Right away, the tree withered and dried up.

The disciples were amazed when they saw it. “How did the fig tree wither so quickly?” they asked.

Jesus answered, “Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you can do things like this. You could even say to this mountain, ‘Go, throw yourself into the sea,’ and it will be done. If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer.”

JOHN 21:1-14

The Second Great Catch of Fish

After Jesus rose from the dead, some of His disciples went fishing on the Sea of Galilee. Peter, Thomas, Nathanael, James, John, and two others were together. They fished all night, but they didn't catch a single fish.

Early in the morning, as the sun came up, Jesus stood on the shore—but the disciples didn't realize it was Him.

He called out, "Friends, have you caught any fish?"

"No," they answered.

Jesus said, "Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some."

They did as He said, and suddenly the net was so full of fish they could not pull it in!

John said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Peter heard this, he jumped into the water and swam to shore. The other disciples followed in the boat, dragging the net full of fish.

When they landed, they saw a fire with fish cooking on it, and some bread. Jesus said, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught."

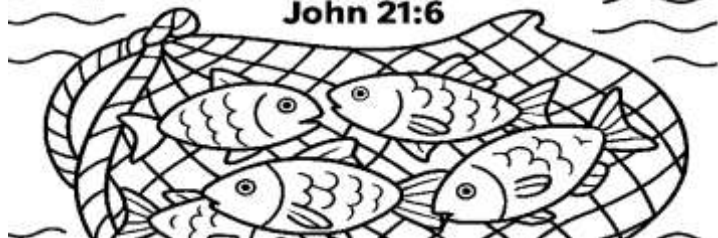

Peter pulled the net ashore—it was full of 153 large fish, yet the net did not break.

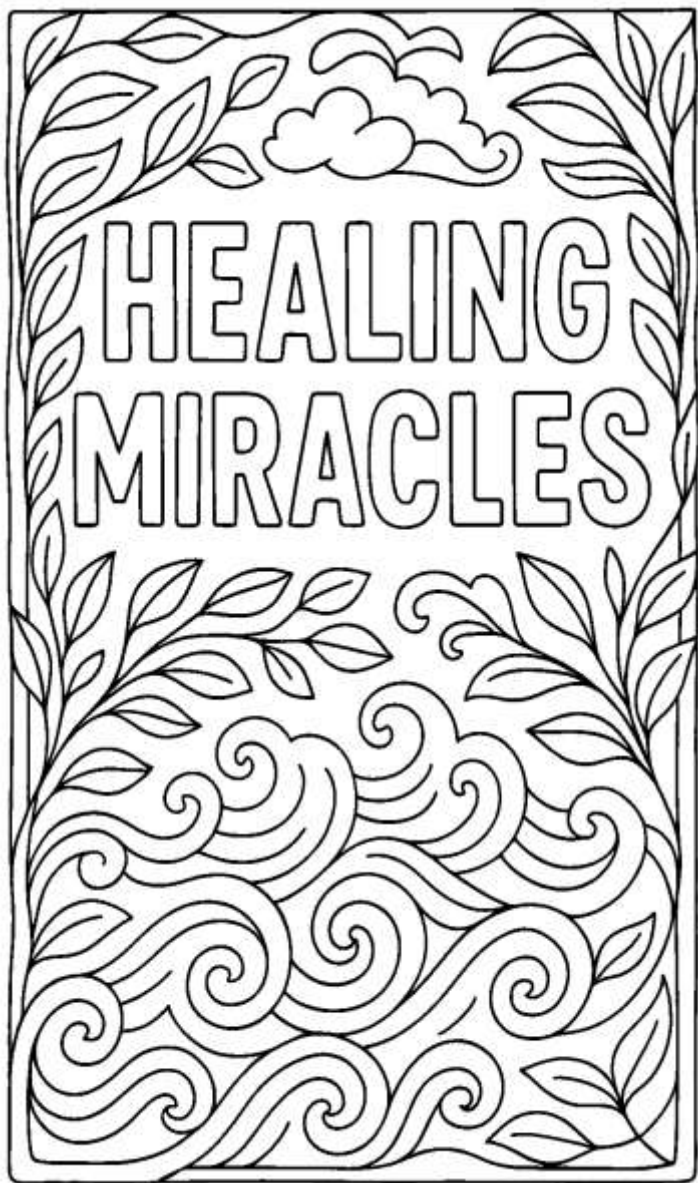

Jesus invited them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples needed to ask who He was. They knew it was the Lord.

This was the third time Jesus appeared to His disciples after He rose from the dead.

When they did,
they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.

HEALING OF ROYAL OFFICIAL'S SON

JOHN 4:46-54

Jesus Heals the Royal Official's Son

Jesus went to Cana in Galilee, the place where He had turned water into wine. There was a royal official in the town of Capernaum whose young son was very sick.

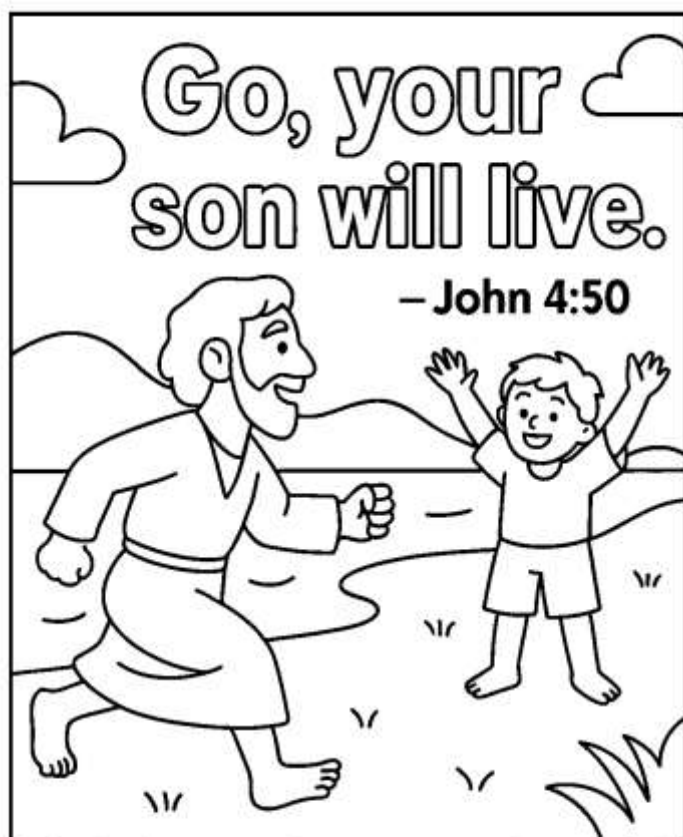

When the man heard that Jesus had come, he hurried to Him and begged, "Sir, please come to my house before my child dies!"

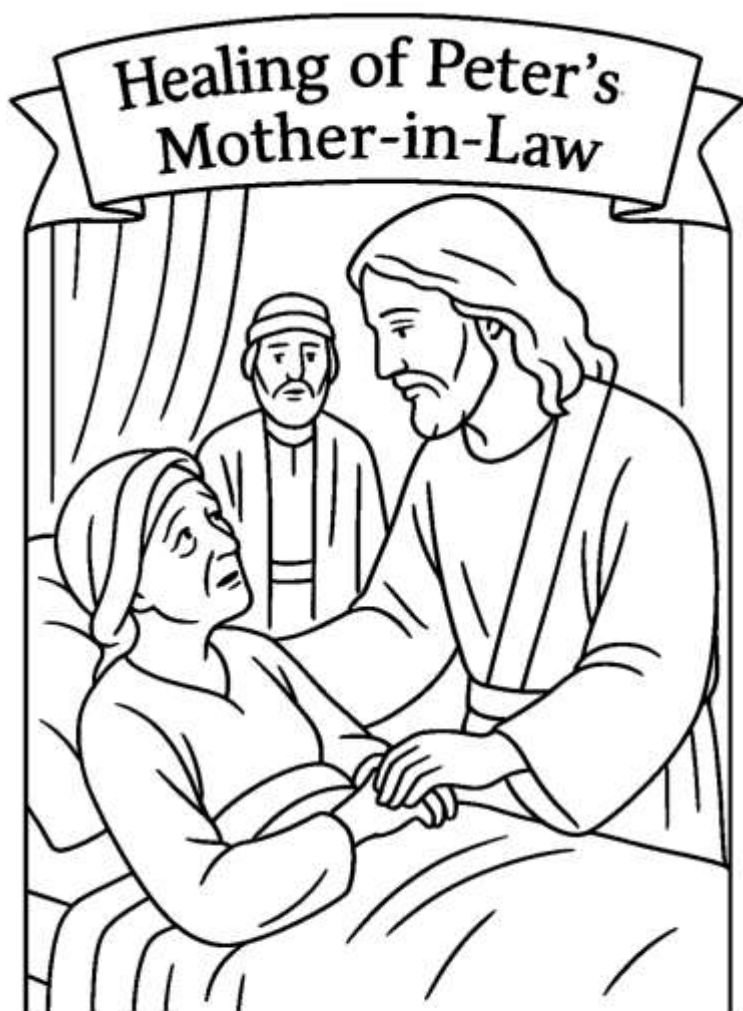

Jesus told him, "Go, your son will live."

The man believed what Jesus said and started back home. While he was still on the way, his servants met him with wonderful news: "Your boy is living!"

He asked them what time his son began to get better. They said, "Yesterday, at one in the afternoon, the fever left him." The father realized that this was the exact time Jesus had said, "Your son will live."

Because of this miracle, the royal official and his whole household believed in Jesus.

Matthew 8:14-15, Mark 1:29-31

Jesus Heals Peter's Mother-in-Law

One day, Jesus went to Peter's house. When He entered, He saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed. She was very sick with a high fever.

Jesus went to her side, gently touched her hand, and at once the fever left her. She got up, completely well again.

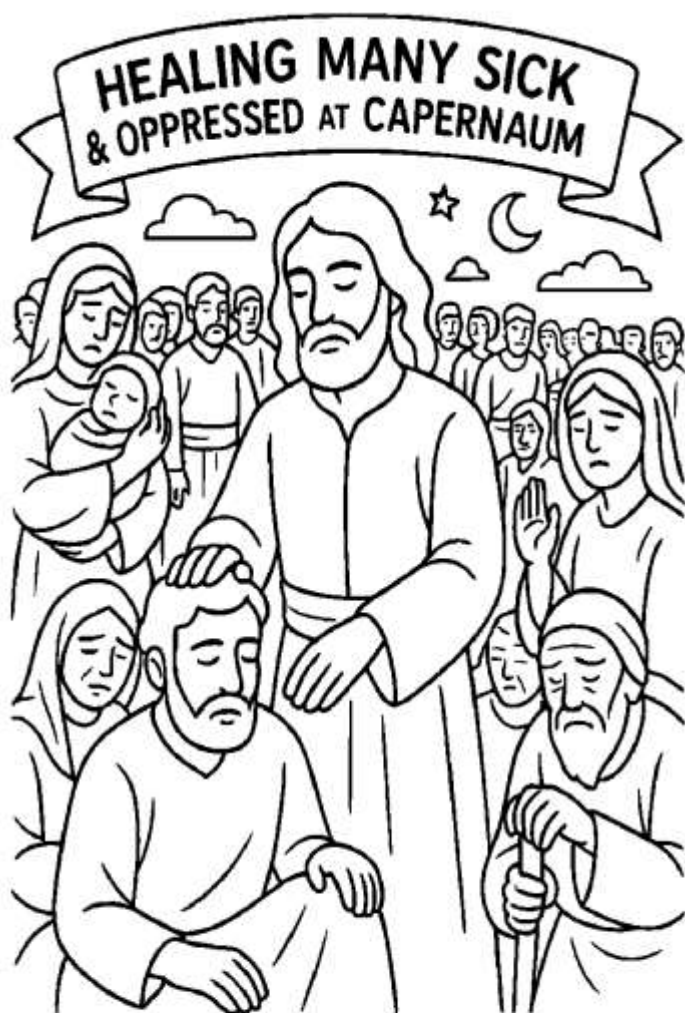

Right away, she began to serve Jesus and the others in the house.

This miracle showed Jesus' great power and His kindness, even in the quiet moments at home.

and the fever left her.

Jesus Heals Many in Capernaum

That evening, after the sun went down, many people came to the house where Jesus was staying. They brought all who were sick, and many who were troubled by evil spirits.

Jesus healed them all. With just a word, He drove out the spirits and made the sick well again.

This fulfilled what God had promised long ago through the prophet Isaiah: "He took up our sicknesses and carried our diseases."

Everyone in Capernaum saw that Jesus had power to heal and to set people free.

Jesus Heals a Man with Leprosy

One day, Jesus came down from the mountainside, and a large crowd followed Him. A man with leprosy came and knelt before Jesus. Leprosy was a terrible skin disease, and people with it had to live apart from others.

The man said, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

Jesus reached out His hand and touched the man. "I am willing," He said. "Be clean!"

Right away, the man was healed. His skin became clean and healthy again.

Then Jesus told him, "Don't tell anyone. But go and show yourself to the priest, and give the offering Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

Jesus crossed over the lake and came to His own town. Some men brought to Him a man who could not walk. The man lay on a mat, and his friends carried him to Jesus.

When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven."

Some teachers of the law were standing there. They thought to themselves, "This man is speaking against God."

But Jesus knew what they were thinking. He said, "Why do you have such evil thoughts in your hearts? Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..."

Then Jesus said to the paralytic, "Get up, take your mat, and go home."

At once the man stood up, picked up his mat, and went home.

The crowd saw what had happened, and they were filled with awe. They praised God for giving such authority to Jesus.

Jesus Heals a Man with a Withered Hand

One Sabbath day, Jesus went into the synagogue. Inside was a man whose hand was withered and weak.

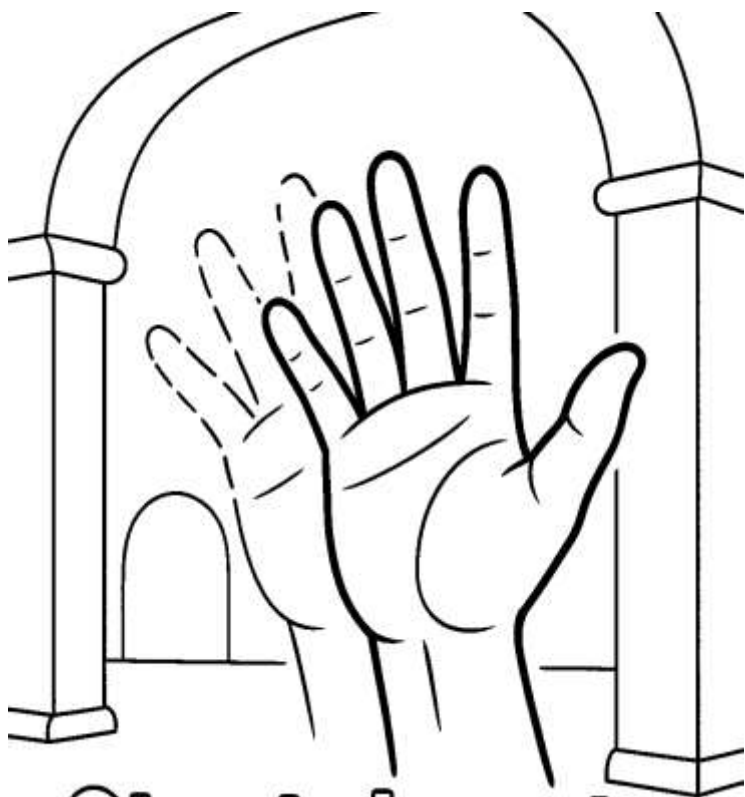

Some teachers of the law were watching Jesus closely. They wanted to find a reason to accuse Him. They asked, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

Jesus answered, "If one of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, wouldn't you lift it out? A person is much more valuable than a sheep! So yes, it is right to do good on the Sabbath."

Then Jesus said to the man, "Stretch out your hand."

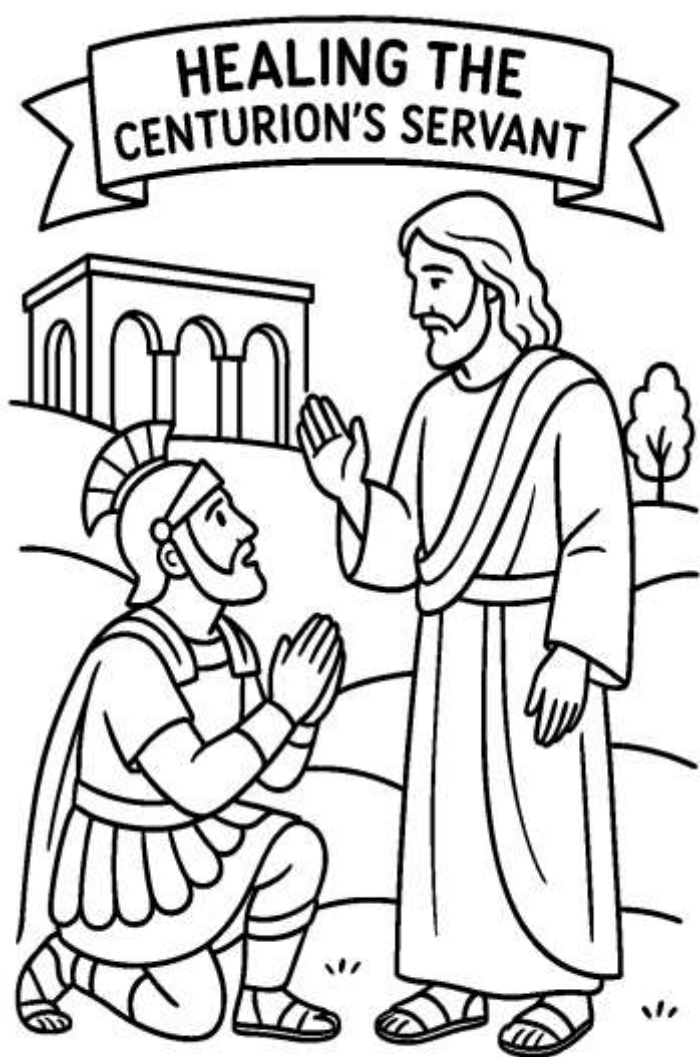

The man stretched it out, and it became completely whole, just like the other hand.

The people were amazed at this miracle, but the Pharisees began to plot against Jesus.

Stretch out your hand.'

Jesus Heals the Centurion's Servant

[Editor's Note: In Luke's Gospel, the centurion sends elders instead of coming personally.]

One day, Jesus entered the town of Capernaum. A Roman centurion, an army officer, came to Him asking for help. "Lord," he said, "my servant is lying at home, very sick and in terrible pain." Jesus replied, "I will go and heal him." But the centurion answered, "Lord, I do not deserve to have You come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. I know this because I myself am under authority, and I have soldiers under me. When I tell one to go, he goes. When I tell another to come, he comes. When I tell my servant to do something, he does it."

When Jesus heard this, He was amazed. He turned to the crowd and said, "I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith!"

Then Jesus told the centurion, "Go! It will be done just as you believed it would."

At that very hour, the servant was healed.

"Just say the word,
and my servant
will be healed."

Healing a Bleeding Woman

Matthew 9:20-22; Mark 5:25-34; Luke 8:43-48

Jesus Heals a Bleeding Woman

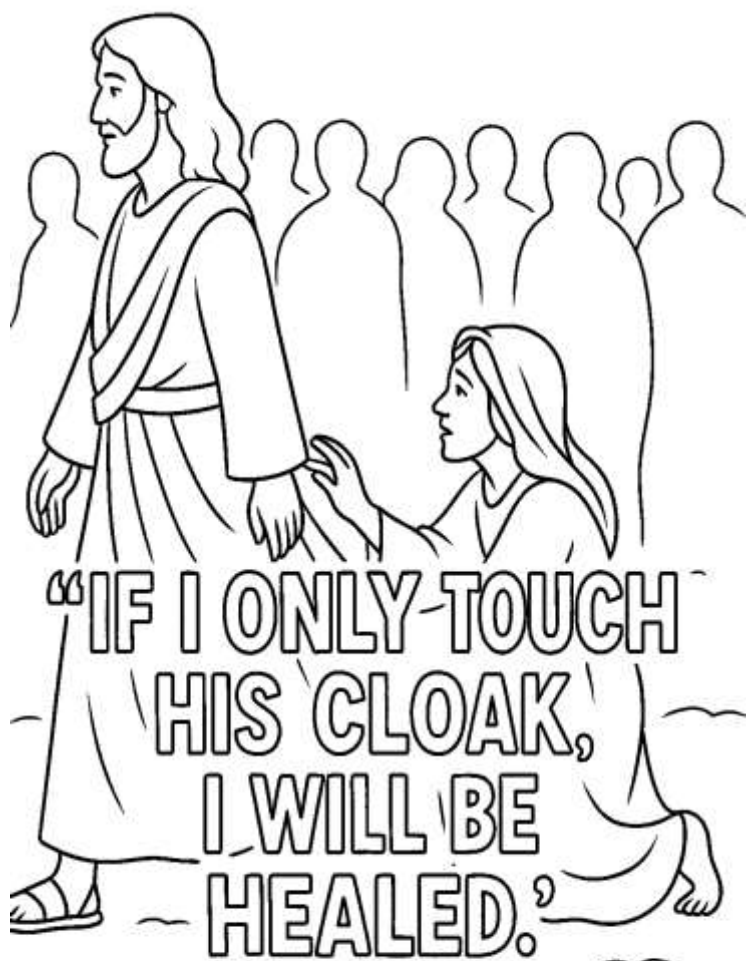

As Jesus was on His way to help a young girl, a large crowd gathered around Him. In the crowd was a woman who had been very sick for twelve years. She had spent all she had on doctors, but no one could heal her.

She came up behind Jesus, thinking, "If I can just touch the edge of His cloak, I will be healed."

She reached out, touched His cloak—and immediately she was healed!

Jesus turned and saw her. "Take heart, daughter," He said kindly. "Your faith has healed you."

From that very moment, the woman was completely well.

Matthew 9:27-31

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

As Jesus went on His way, two blind men followed Him, calling out loudly, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

When Jesus went into a house, the blind men came to Him there. Jesus asked them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

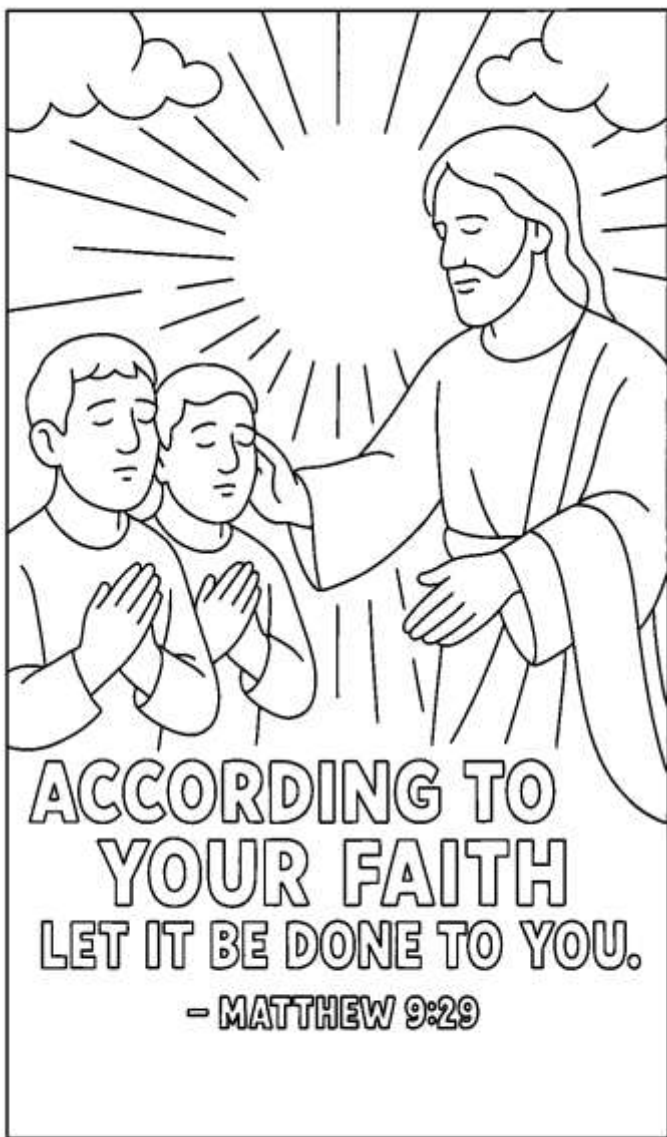

"Yes, Lord," they replied.

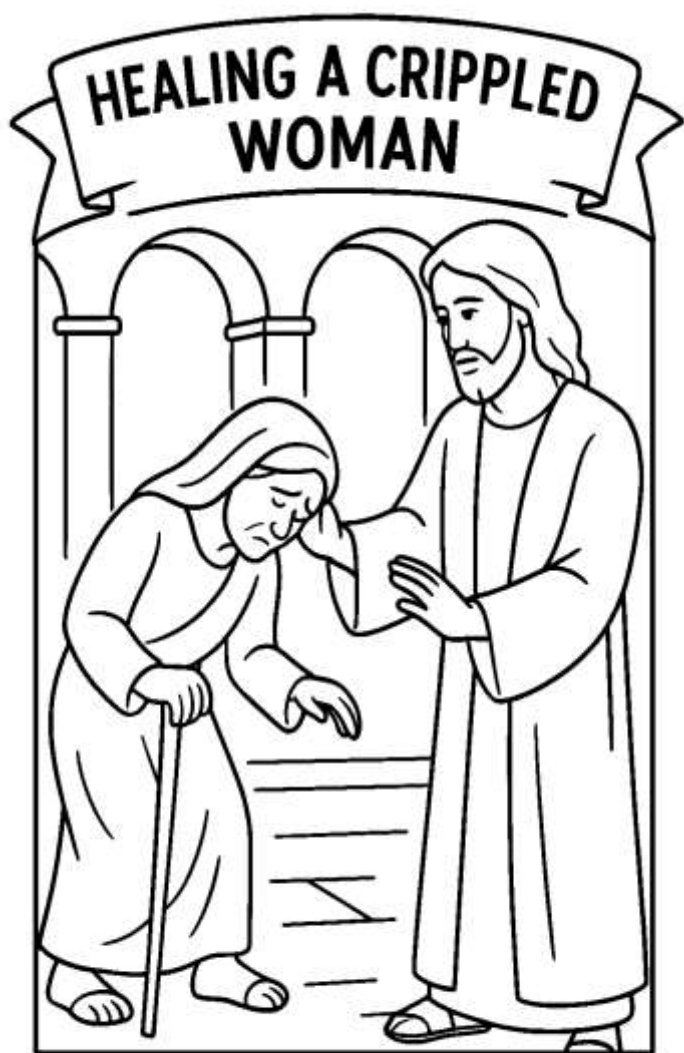

Then Jesus touched their eyes and said, "According to your faith let it be done to you."

At once, their eyes were opened, and they could see!

Jesus warned them sternly, "See that no one knows about this."

But the men were so full of joy that they went out and told everyone in the whole area about what Jesus had done.

LUKE 13:10-17

Jesus Heals a Crippled Woman

One Sabbath day, Jesus was teaching in a synagogue. In the crowd was a woman who had been crippled for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all.

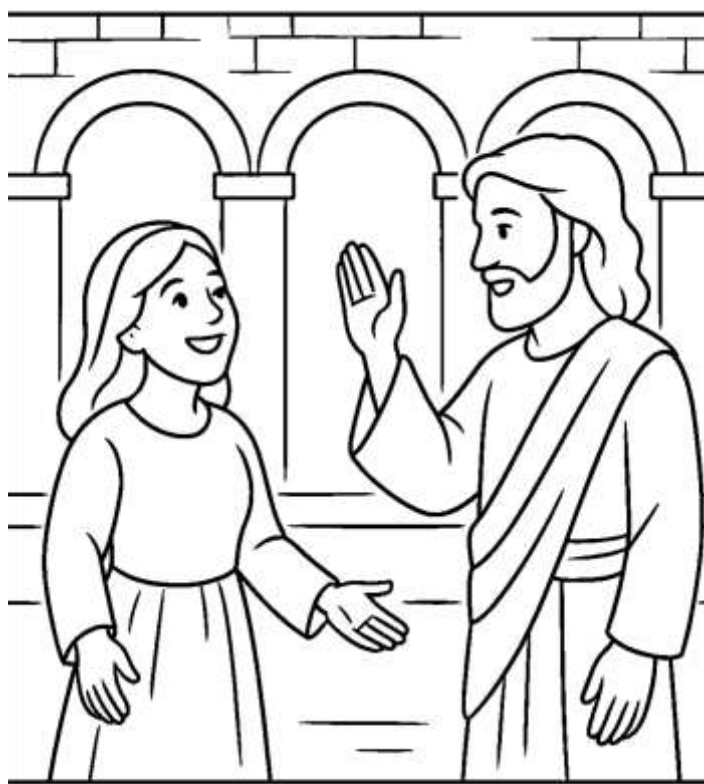

When Jesus saw her, He called her forward and said, "Woman, you are set free from your sickness."

He placed His hands on her, and right away she straightened up and praised God!

But the synagogue leader was upset. He said to the people, "There are six days for work. Come and be healed on those days, not on the Sabbath."

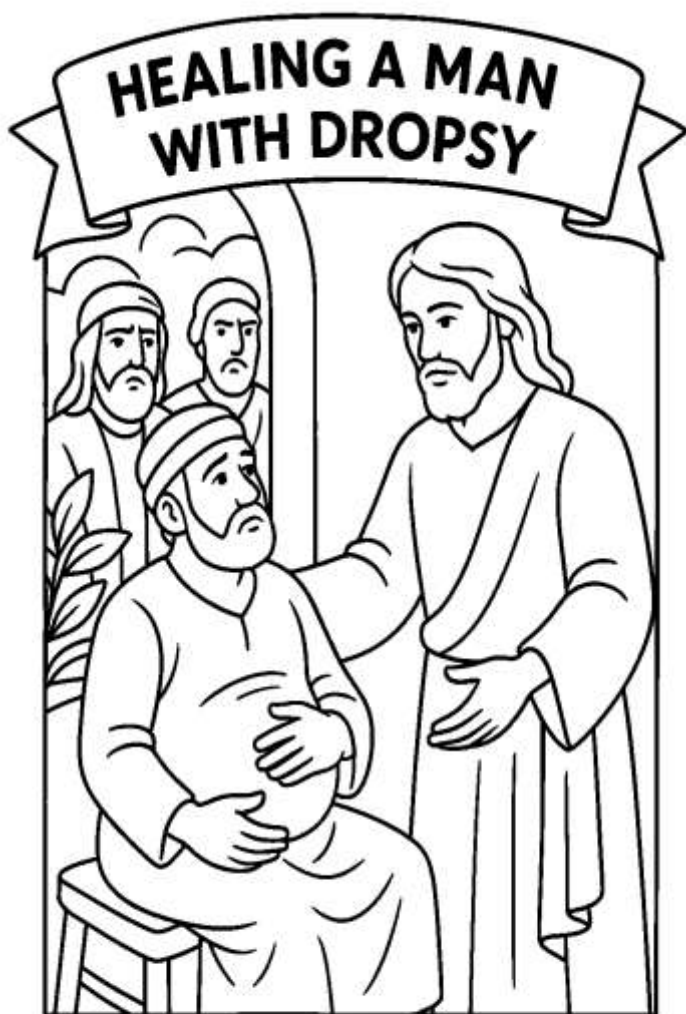

Jesus answered, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each of you untie your ox or donkey on the Sabbath and lead it to water? Then shouldn't this woman, a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan kept bound for eighteen long years, be set free on the Sabbath day?"

His words put His enemies to shame, but the people were delighted with all the wonderful things He was doing.

Jesus Heals a Man with Dropsy

One Sabbath day, Jesus went to eat at the house of a Pharisee, a leader of the Jews. Some of the teachers of the law were watching Him very closely.

In front of Jesus was a man suffering from dropsy, a sickness that made his body swollen.

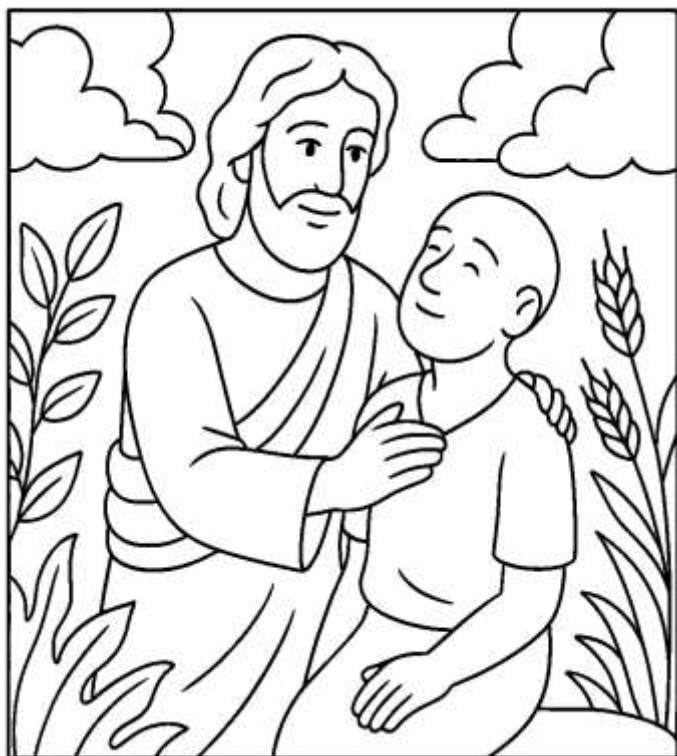

Jesus asked the Pharisees and teachers of the law, "Is it right to heal on the Sabbath or not?"

They stayed silent.

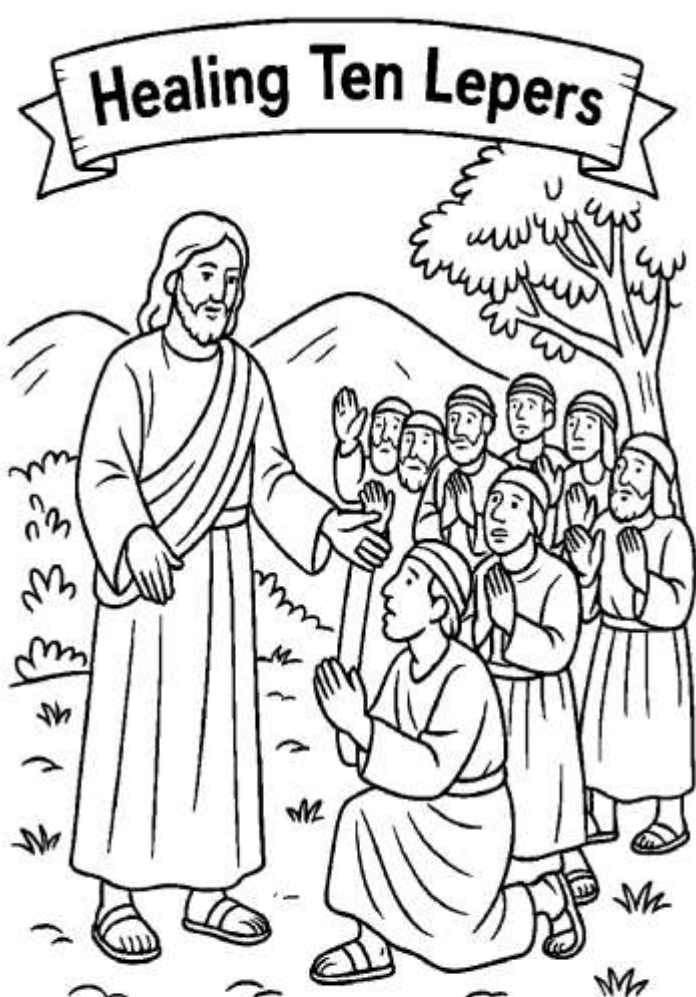

So Jesus took hold of the man, healed him, and sent him on his way.

Then Jesus said, "If one of you has a child or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, wouldn't you pull it out immediately?"

The Pharisees could not answer Him.

Jesus Heals Ten Lepers

On His way to Jerusalem, Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As He entered a village, ten men with leprosy met Him. They stood at a distance and called out loudly, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

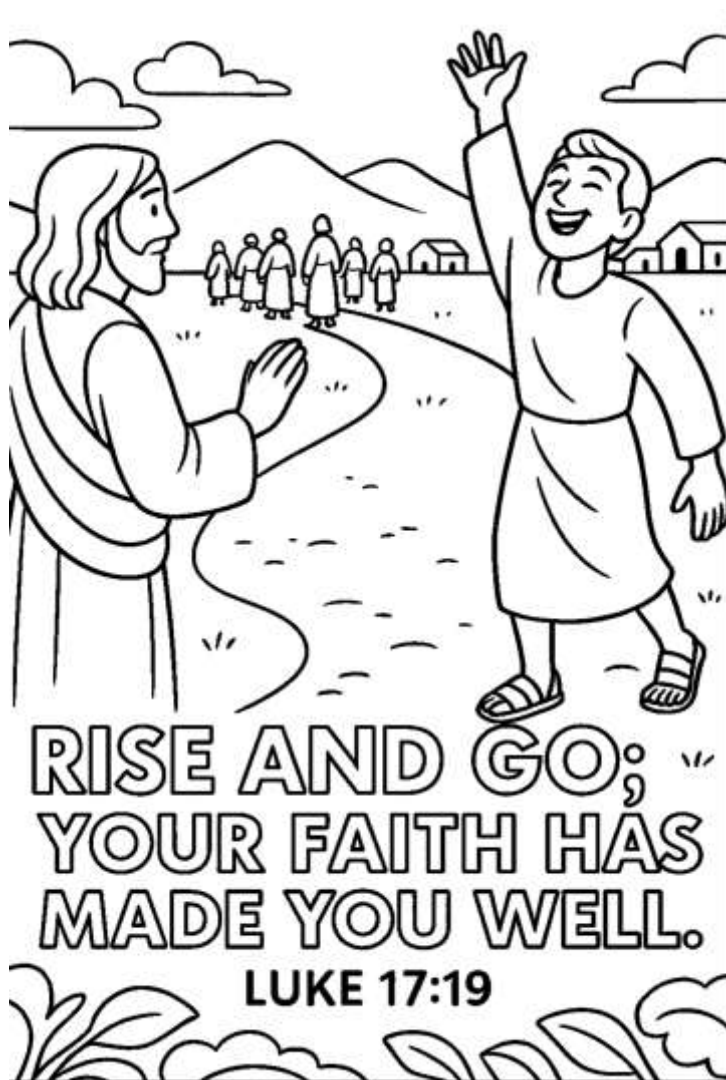

When Jesus saw them, He said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests."

As they went on their way, they were healed! Their leprosy was gone, and their skin was made clean.

One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked Him. This man was a Samaritan.

Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?"

Then Jesus said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

[Editor's Note: Adjusted to match Mark 10:46–52, which names only one man, Bartimaeus.]

As Jesus and His disciples were leaving the city of Jericho, a large crowd followed them.

A blind man named Bartimaeus was sitting by the roadside. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"

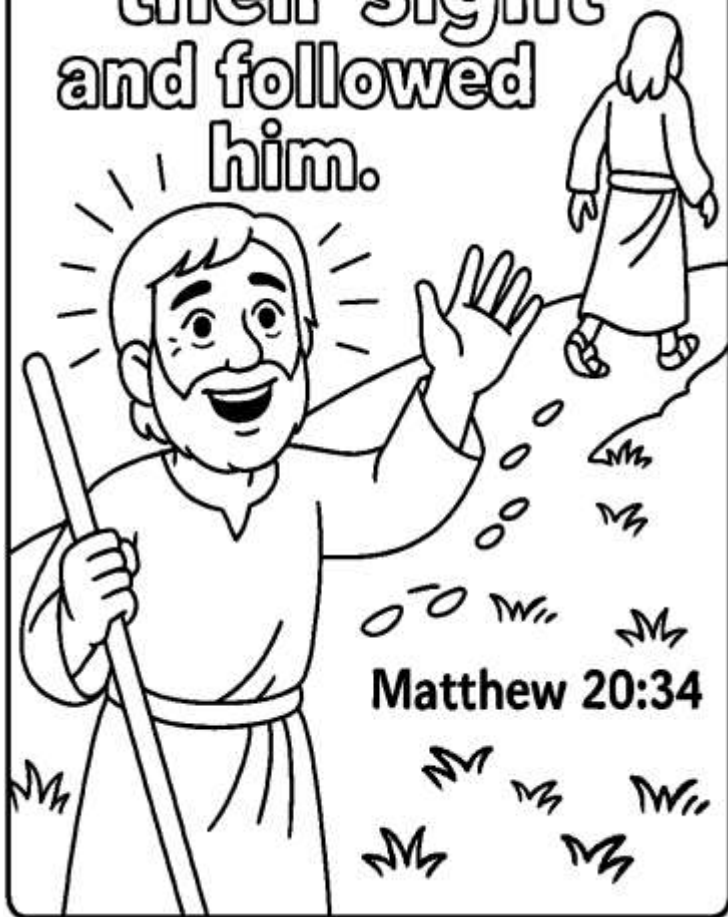

The crowd told them to be quiet, but they shouted even louder, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"

Jesus stopped and called them. "What do you want Me to do for you?" He asked.

"Lord, we want to see," they answered.

Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately, they received their sight and followed Him.

Jesus Heals the High Priest's Servant's Ear

Late at night, soldiers and officials came to arrest Jesus in the garden. His disciples were afraid, but one of them quickly pulled out a sword.

He struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

But Jesus said, "No more of this!" Even in that frightening moment, Jesus reached out and touched the man's ear—and it was healed instantly.

This showed that Jesus came not to fight with weapons, but to bring peace and healing.

JOHN 5:1-15

Jesus Heals the Man at Bethesda

In Jerusalem there was a pool called Bethesda. Many sick people lay there, hoping to be healed. Some were blind, some were lame, and some were paralyzed.

Among them was a man who had been sick for thirty-eight years.

When Jesus saw him lying there, He asked, "Do you want to get well?"

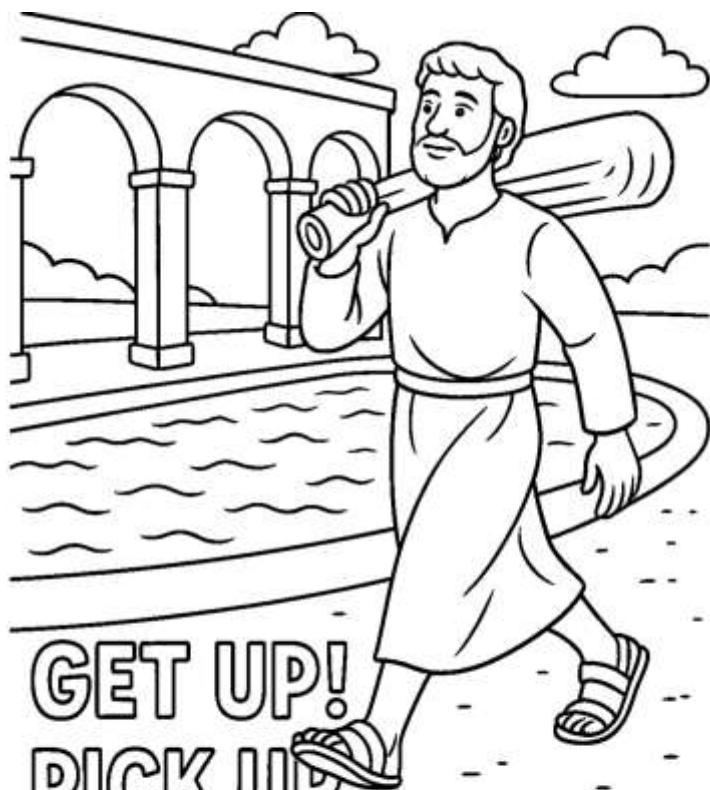

"Sir," the man replied, "I have no one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else always goes down ahead of me."

Then Jesus said to him, "Get up! Pick up your mat and walk."

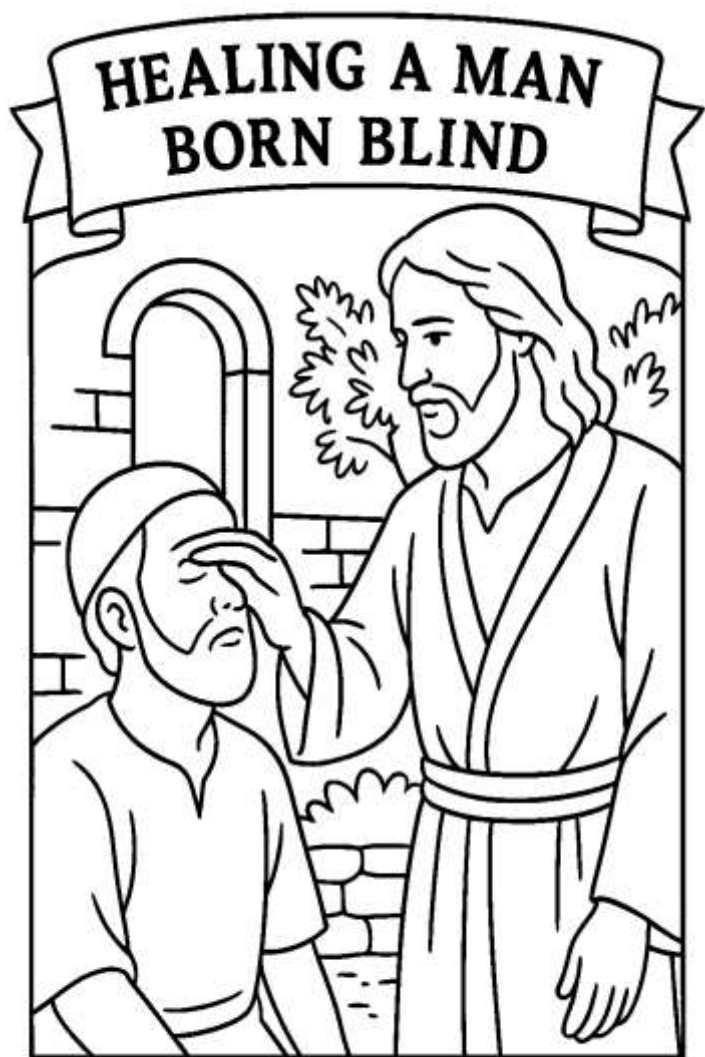

At once, the man was healed. He picked up his mat and walked!

Later, Jesus found him in the temple and said, "See, you are well again. Stop sinning, or something worse may happen to you."

The man went away and told the people that it was Jesus who had made him well.

JOHN 9:1-12

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

As Jesus was walking along, He saw a man who had been blind since birth.

The disciples asked Him, "Teacher, who sinned—this man or his parents—that he was born blind?"

Jesus answered, "It was not because of his sin or his parents' sin. This happened so that the works of God might be seen in him."

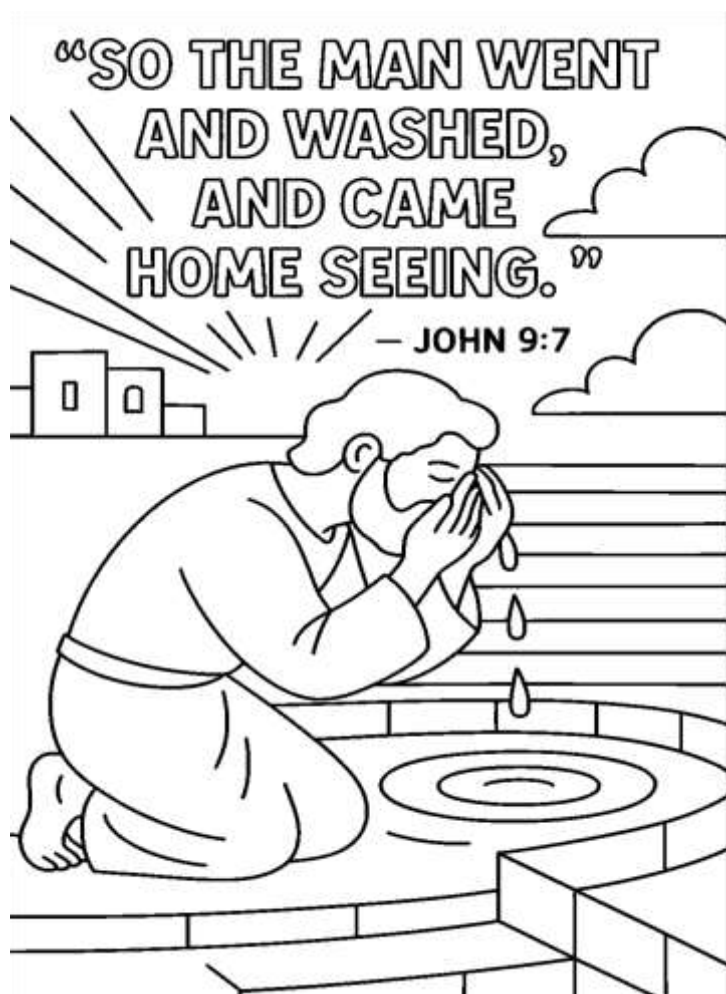

Then Jesus spit on the ground, made some mud with the saliva, and spread it on the man's eyes. He told him, "Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam."

The man went and washed—and when he came back, he could see!

His neighbours and others who had known him before were amazed. "Isn't this the same man who used to sit and beg?" some asked.

"Yes, it's him!" others said. But some people doubted.

The man himself said, "I am the man. The one they call Jesus made mud, put it on my eyes, and told me to wash. I did, and now I can see!"

MARK 7:31-37

Jesus Heals a Deaf and Mute Man

Jesus was traveling through the region of the Decapolis. Some people brought to Him a man who could not hear and could hardly speak. They begged Jesus to lay His hand on the man.

Jesus led the man away from the crowd, so it was just the two of them. He gently put His fingers in the man's ears. Then He touched the man's tongue.

Jesus looked up to heaven and sighed. He said, "Ephphatha," which means "Be opened!"

Right away, the man's ears were opened, his tongue was set free, and he began to speak clearly!

Jesus told the people not to spread the news, but the more He asked, the more they told everyone what had happened.

The people were amazed and said, "He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!"

HEALING THE BLIND MAN AT BETHSAIDA

MARK 8:22-26

Jesus Heals the Blind Man at Bethsaida

One day, Jesus came to the town of Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to Him and begged Jesus to touch him.

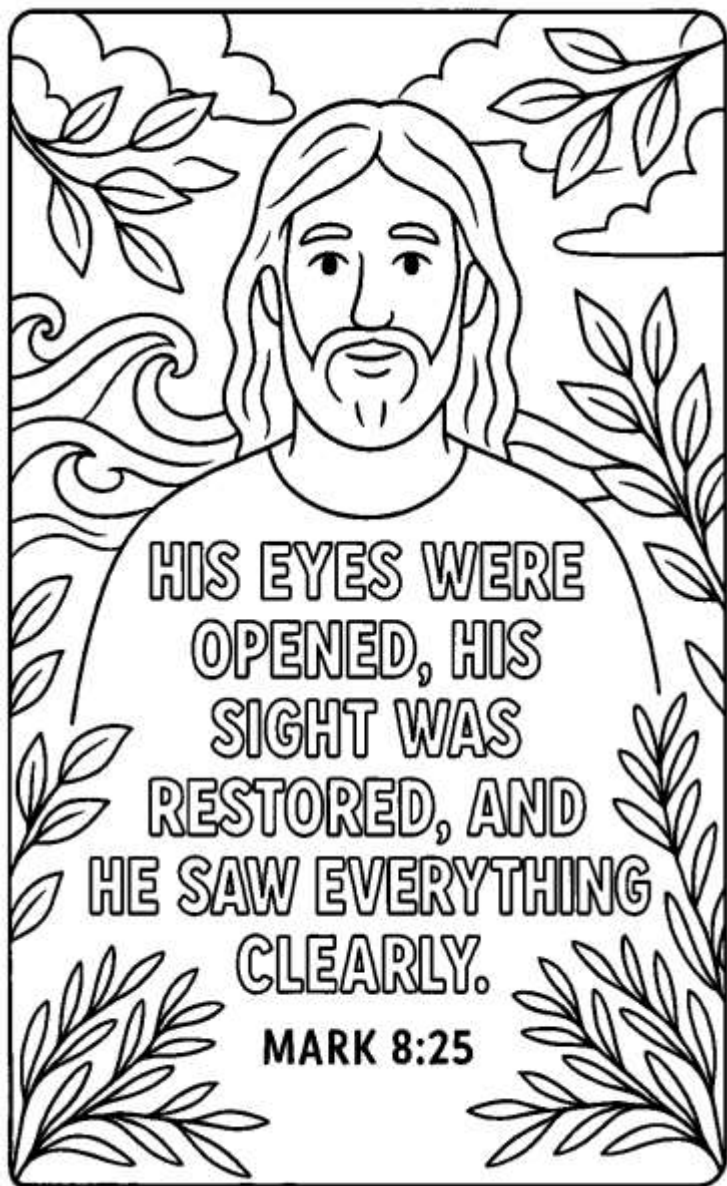

Jesus took the man by the hand and led him outside the village. He gently spit on the man's eyes and placed His hands on him. Then Jesus asked, "Do you see anything?"

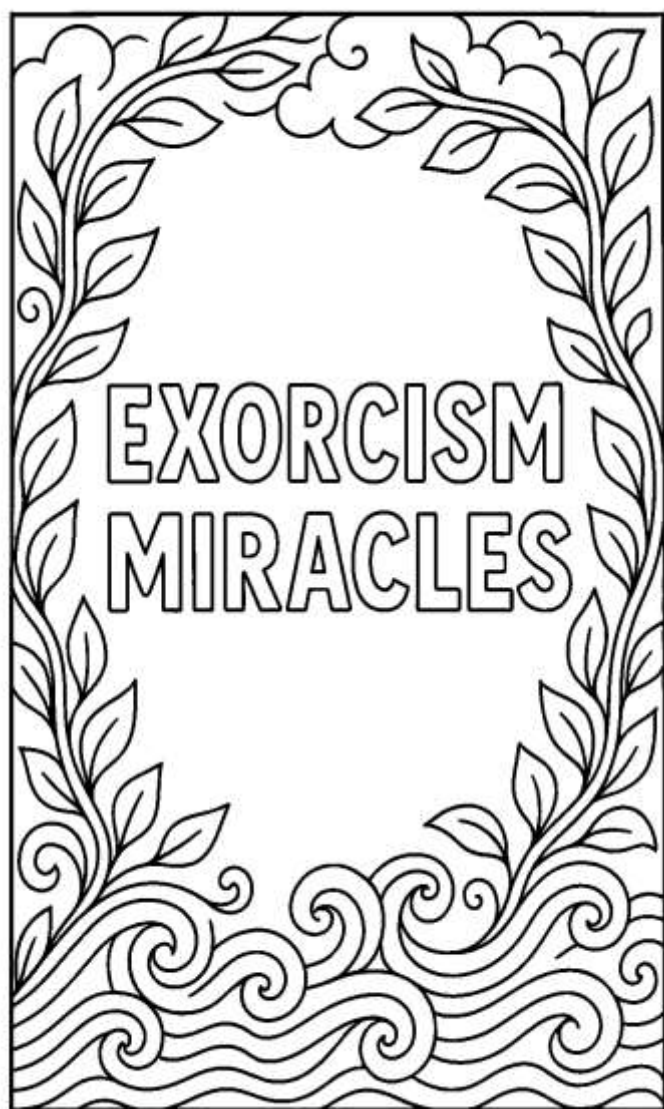

The man looked up and said, "I see people, but they look like trees walking around."

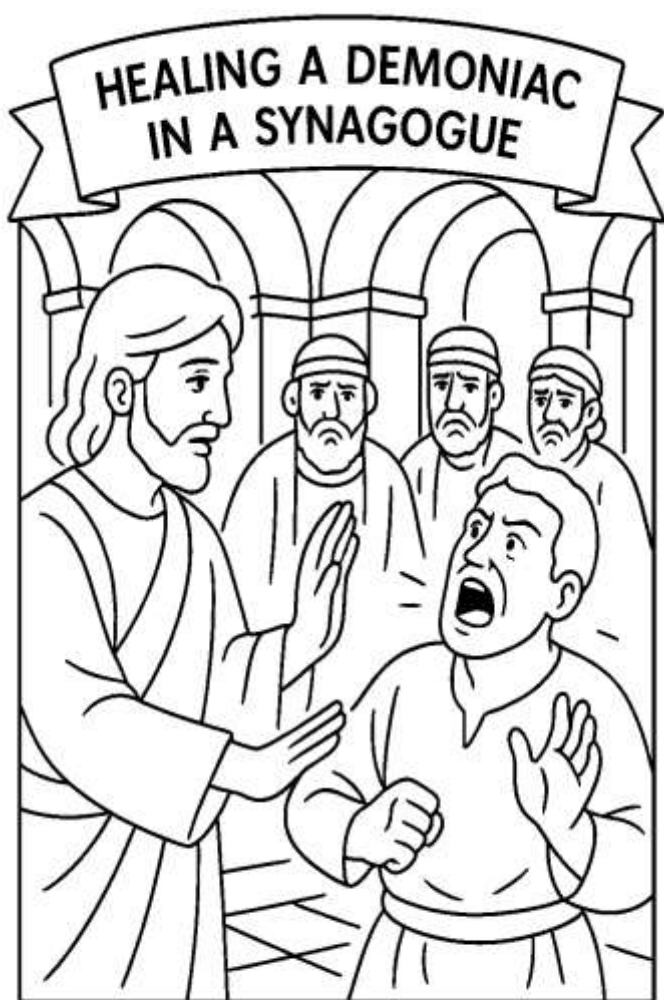

So Jesus touched the man's eyes again. This time, his eyes were fully opened, and his sight was completely restored! He could see everything clearly.

Jesus sent him home and said, "Don't even go into the village."

The people who saw this miracle knew that Jesus had the power to heal in amazing ways.

Mark 1:21-28; Luke 4:31-37

Jesus Heals a Man in the Synagogue

One Sabbath day, Jesus went into the synagogue at Capernaum and began to teach. Everyone was amazed at His teaching, because He spoke with great authority.

In the synagogue was a man who was possessed by an evil spirit. He cried out loudly, "What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!"

"Be quiet!" Jesus said firmly. "Come out of him!"

The evil spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a loud cry.

All the people were amazed. They asked each other, "What is this? A new teaching—and with such authority! He even gives orders to evil spirits, and they obey Him."

News about Jesus spread quickly through the whole region of Galilee.

Healing Two Demon-Possessed Men

Matthew 8:28–34; Mark 5:1-20;
Luke 8:26-39

Jesus Heals Two Demon-Possessed Men

Jesus and His disciples sailed across the lake to the region of the Gerasenes. When Jesus stepped ashore, two men came to meet Him. They were possessed by demons and lived among the tombs. They were so violent that no one could pass that way.

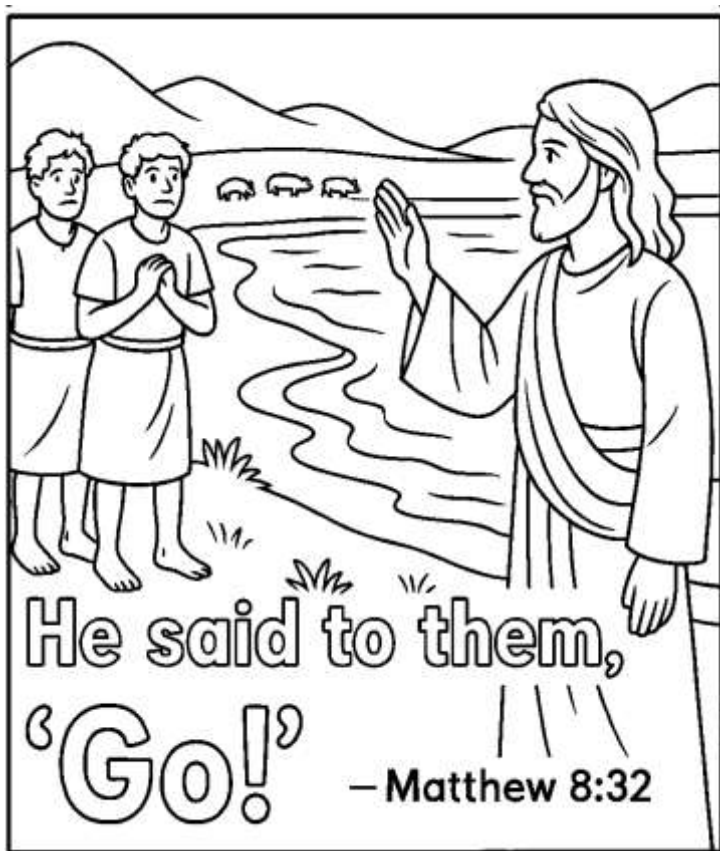

When they saw Jesus, they cried out, "What do You want with us, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Don't torture us!" The demons begged Him not to send them into the abyss.

Nearby, a large herd of pigs was feeding on the hillside. The demons pleaded with Jesus to let them go into the pigs, and He gave them permission. When the demons left the men and went into the pigs, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

The men who had been freed sat at Jesus' feet, dressed and in their right minds. The people of the region were afraid and asked Jesus to leave.

As Jesus was getting into the boat, one of the healed men begged to go with Him. But Jesus said, "Return home and tell how much God has done for you."

So the man went away and told everyone how Jesus had healed him.

Jesus Heals a Blind and Mute Man

One day, people brought to Jesus a man who was blind and could not speak because he was possessed by a demon.

Jesus healed him so that he could both talk and see.

The crowd was amazed. They said, "Could this be the Son of David?"

But the Pharisees, who did not believe in Jesus, said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man drives out demons."

Jesus knew what they were thinking. He said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will fall. If Satan drives out Satan, his kingdom cannot stand. But if I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you."

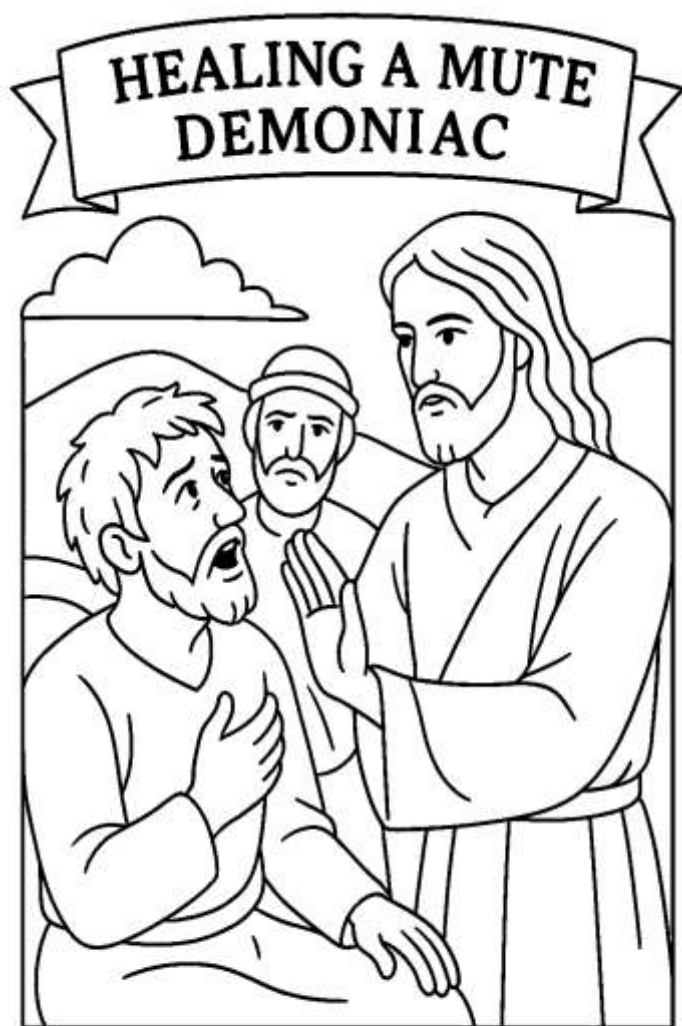

Jesus also warned them that speaking against the Holy Spirit is very serious and will not be forgiven.

The people could see that Jesus had real power from God, and this miracle showed God's kingdom was already at work among them.

Jesus Heals a Mute Man

While Jesus was speaking, some people brought to Him a man who could not talk because he was possessed by a demon.

Jesus drove the demon out, and the man who had been mute began to speak!

The crowd was amazed. They said, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel."

But the Pharisees said, "It is by the prince of demons that He drives out demons."

Still, the people could see the truth—Jesus had power that came from God.

Jesus Heals a Boy with an Unclean Spirit

A man came to Jesus and knelt before Him. "Lord, have mercy on my son," he said. "He has seizures and suffers terribly. Sometimes he falls into the fire or into the water. I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not heal him."

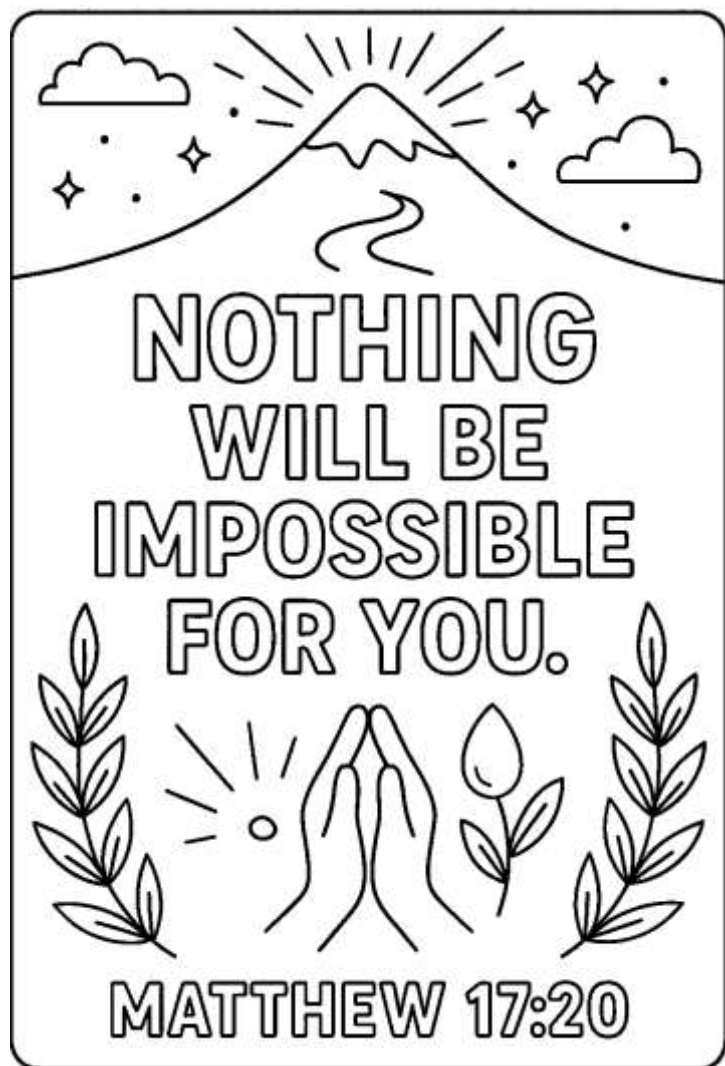

Jesus said, "You unbelieving and stubborn generation! How long shall I stay with you? Bring the boy here to Me."

When the boy was brought to Him, Jesus spoke firmly to the demon and commanded it to come out. The demon left, and the boy was healed at once.

Later, the disciples asked Jesus privately, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

Jesus replied, "Because you have so little faith. Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.”

Jesus Heals a Canaanite Woman's Daughter

Jesus travelled to the area of Tyre and Sidon. A Canaanite woman came to Him, crying out, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is suffering terribly from a demon."

At first, Jesus did not answer her. His disciples came and begged Him, "Send her away, because she keeps crying out after us."

Jesus said, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel."

But the woman came closer and knelt before Him. "Lord, help me!" she pleaded.

Jesus replied, "It is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to the dogs."

"Yes, Lord," she said, "but even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their master's table."

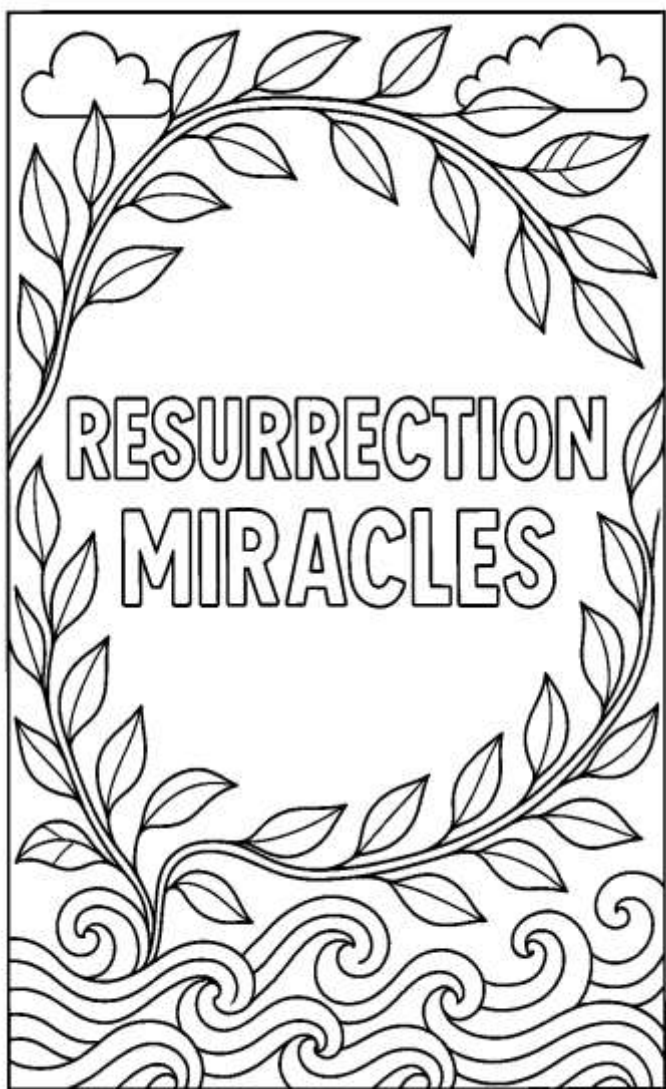

Then Jesus said to her, "Woman, you have great faith! Your request is granted."

At that very moment, her daughter was healed.

Jesus Raises Jairus's Daughter

A synagogue leader named Jairus came to Jesus and bowed before Him. He said, "My daughter has just died. But if You come and place Your hand on her, she will live."

Jesus got up and went with Jairus, and His disciples followed.

When Jesus arrived at Jairus's house, He saw people crying and playing flutes for the funeral. He told them, "Go away. The girl is not dead but asleep."

The crowd laughed at Him, because they did not believe.

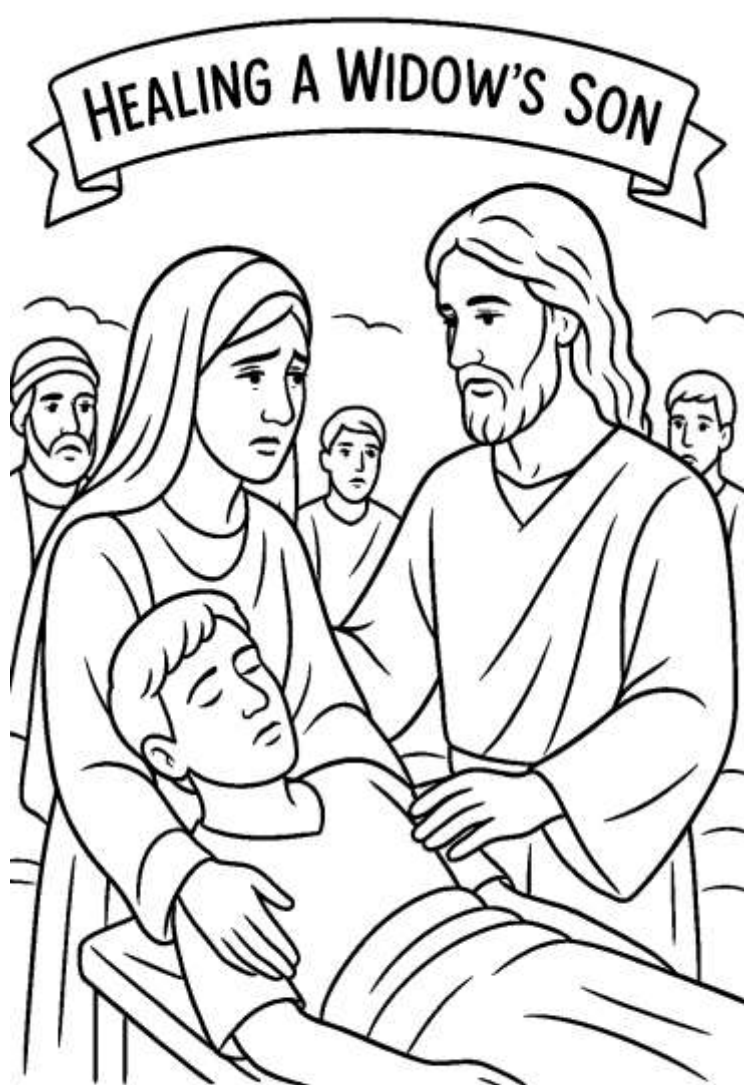

After the people were sent outside, Jesus went into the room, took the girl by the hand, and she got up!

News of this miracle spread through the whole region, and many people heard about the power of Jesus.

Jesus Raises a Widow's Son

Jesus and His disciples were walking toward a town called Nain. A large crowd was following Him.

As they came near the town gate, they saw a funeral procession. A young man had died—the only son of a widow. She was crying, and many people from the town were with her to comfort her.

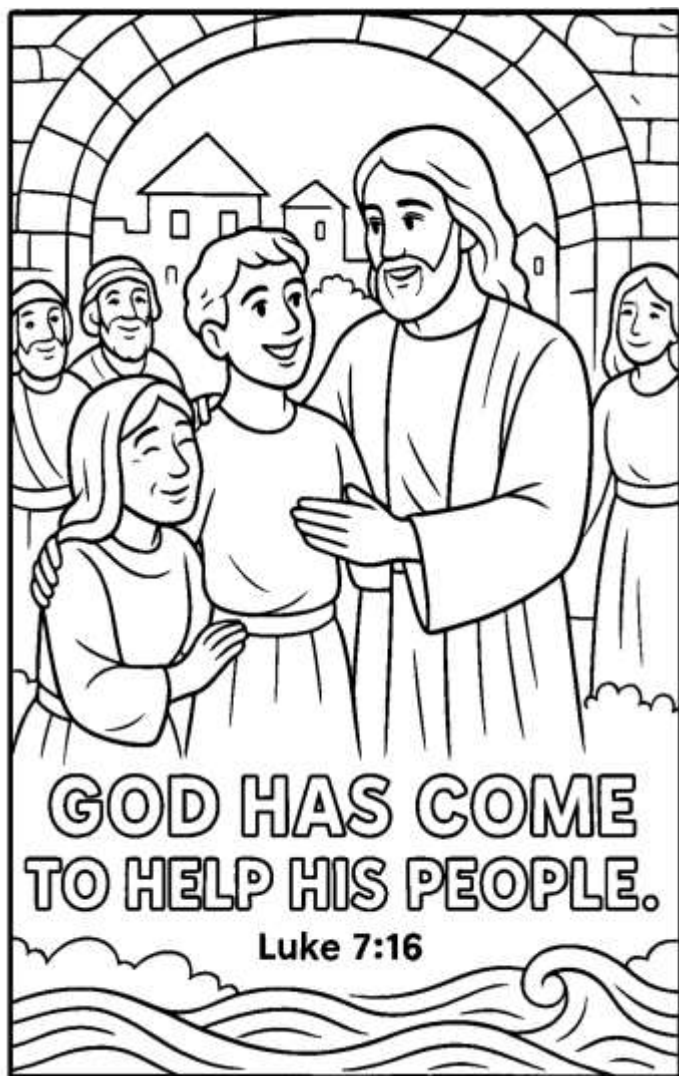

When Jesus saw her, His heart was filled with compassion. He said to her, "Don't cry."

Then He went up and touched the coffin. The people carrying it stopped. Jesus said, "Young man, I say to you, get up!"

At once, the dead man sat up and began to speak. Jesus gave him back to his mother.

Everyone was filled with awe and praised God. They said, "A great prophet has appeared among us. God has come to help His people!"

News about what Jesus had done spread all through Judea and the surrounding country.

John 11:1-44

Jesus Raises Lazarus

Jesus had a close friend named Lazarus, who lived in the town of Bethany with his sisters, Mary and Martha. One day Lazarus became very sick. His sisters sent a message to Jesus, saying, "Lord, the one You love is sick."

When Jesus heard this, He said, "This sickness will not end in death. It is for God's glory." But Jesus stayed where He was for two more days. During that time, Lazarus died.

When Jesus finally arrived in Bethany, Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Martha ran out to meet Him and said, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. But I know that even now God will give You whatever You ask."

Jesus told her, "Your brother will rise again." Then He said, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in Me will live, even though they die."

Mary also came to Jesus, weeping. When He saw her and the others crying, Jesus was deeply moved. He too began to weep.

Then Jesus went to the tomb. "Take away the stone," He said. Martha warned, "But Lord, he has been dead for four days."

Jesus replied, "Did I not tell you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?"

So they rolled the stone away. Jesus prayed, then called out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

To everyone's amazement, Lazarus came out, his hands and feet wrapped in burial cloths. Jesus said, "Take off the grave clothes and let him go."

Because of this miracle, many people believed in Jesus.

The Resurrection of Jesus

Early on Sunday morning, after the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene and another Mary went to look at the tomb where Jesus had been buried.

Suddenly, there was a violent earthquake. An angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled back the stone, and sat on it. His appearance was shining like lightning, and his clothes were as white as snow. The guards were so afraid that they shook and fell down like dead men.

The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; He has risen, just as He said! Come and see the place where He lay. Then go quickly and tell His disciples: He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him."

The women hurried away from the tomb, filled with fear and great joy, and ran to tell the disciples.

Suddenly, Jesus met them. "Greetings," He said. They came to Him, clasped His feet, and worshiped Him.

Then Jesus said, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see Me."

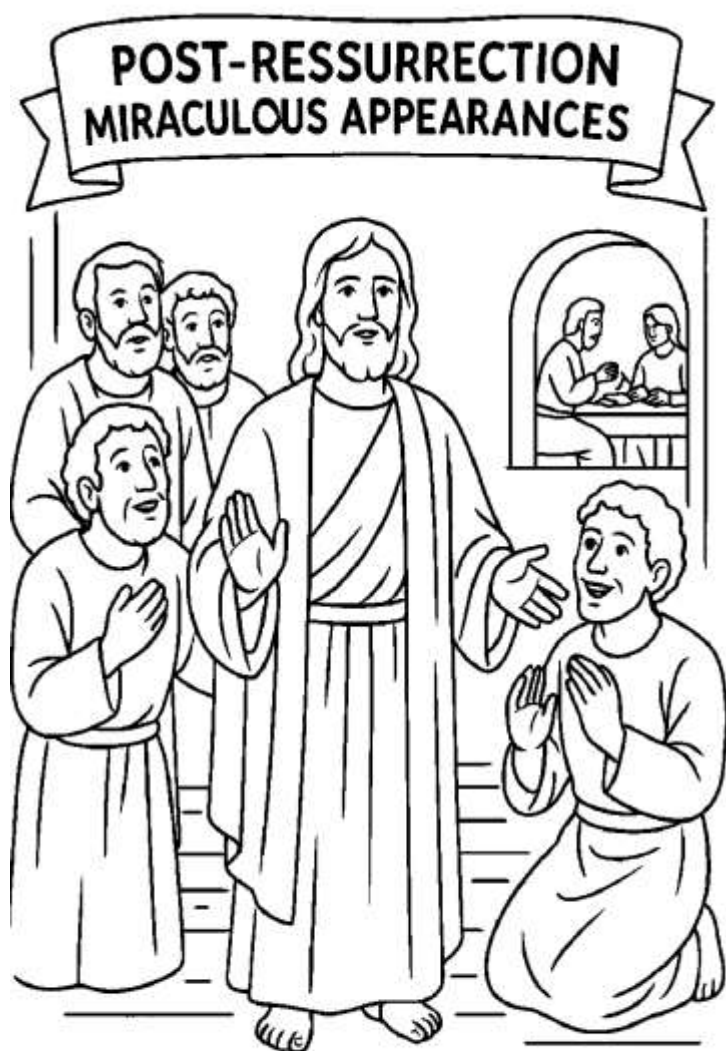

This was the greatest miracle of all—Jesus had risen from the dead!

‘He has risen from the dead.’”

Jesus Appears After His Resurrection

On the same day that Jesus rose from the dead, two of His followers were walking to a village called Emmaus. They were talking sadly about everything that had happened.

Jesus Himself came and walked along with them, but they did not recognize Him. He asked, "What are you talking about?"

They told Him about how Jesus had been crucified. They said, "We had hoped He was the one who would save Israel."

Then Jesus explained the Scriptures to them, showing how everything had pointed to Him.

When they reached the village, they invited Him to stay with them. As Jesus broke bread and gave it to them, their eyes were opened—they suddenly recognized Him! At that moment, He disappeared from their sight.

The two men hurried back to Jerusalem to tell the disciples, "It is true! The Lord has risen!"

Later, while the disciples were gathered together, Jesus suddenly stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a ghost.

But Jesus said, "Look at My hands and My feet. It is I Myself! Touch Me and see. A ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have."

He even ate a piece of fish in front of them to show He was truly alive.

Then Jesus opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. He told them to preach repentance and forgiveness of sins in His name to all nations, beginning in Jerusalem.

Jesus Goes Back to Heaven

(Acts 1:6–11)

After Jesus rose from the dead, He spent many days with His disciples. He talked with them, ate with them, and helped them understand everything that had happened.

One day, Jesus and His disciples went up a hill near Jerusalem. They were full of questions. "Lord," they asked, "are You going to set up Your kingdom now?"

Jesus replied, "It's not for you to know the exact time. But I have something important for you to do. You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes, and you will be My witnesses—to the whole world!"

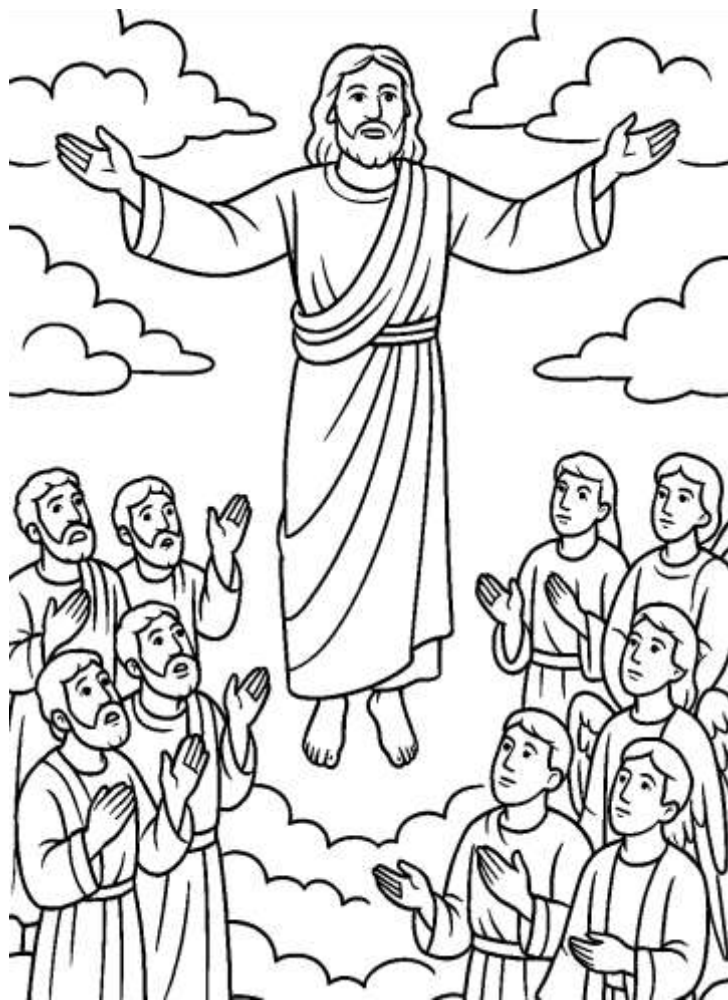

Then, something amazing happened.

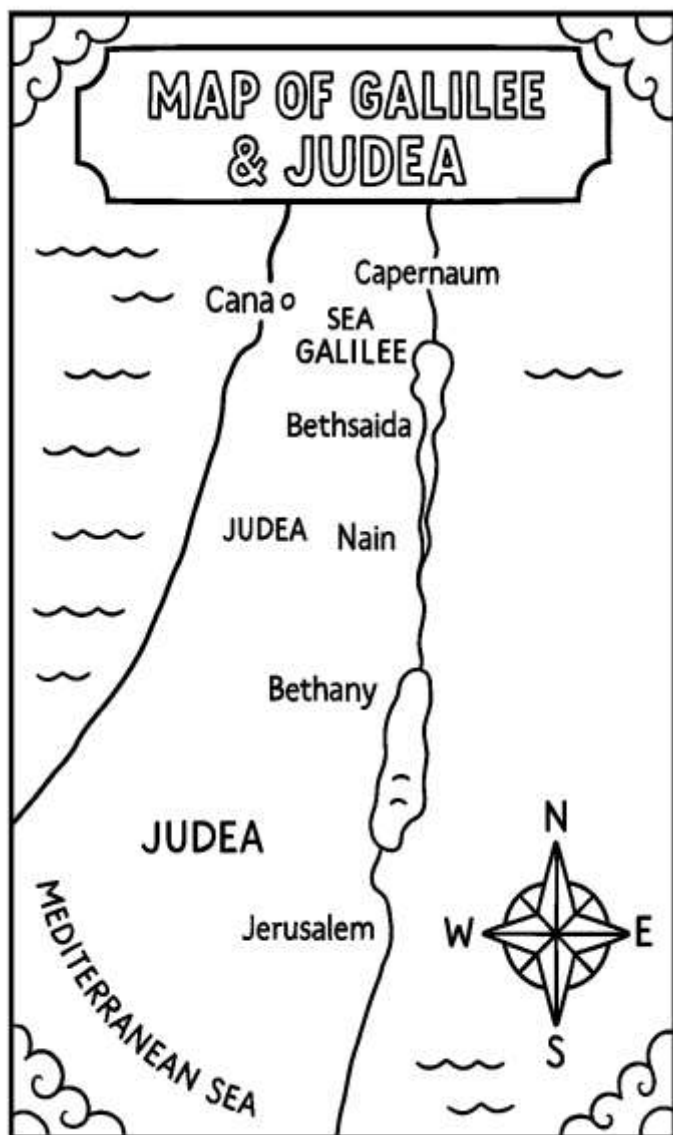

As Jesus was speaking, He began to rise up into the sky! The disciples watched in wonder as He went higher and higher, until a cloud hid Him from their sight.

They stood there, staring into the sky.

Suddenly, two angels appeared beside them. "Why are you looking into the sky?" they asked. "Jesus has been taken up into heaven. One day, He will return—just as you saw Him go!"

The disciples went back to Jerusalem with joy in their hearts. They knew Jesus was alive, and one day He would come again.
